

BOROUGH OF EMERSON
COUNTY OF BERGEN, NEW JERSEY
RESOLUTION

No: 258-19

RE: SUPPORTING CITIZENS IMPROVING AFFORDABLE HOUSING REQUEST FOR STATE ELECTED OFFICIALS TO SET UP AND TAKE OVER AFFORDABLE HOUSING ACT

WHEREAS, the Citizens for Improving Affordable Housing has requested all Municipal Elected Officials to send letters to the State Senators, State Assembly members, the Governor and Lt. Governor in support of State Elected Officials to setup and take over the Affordable Housing Act from the State Judges and work properly with the Municipalities and citizen groups to make this law work properly for ALL citizens of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, the Citizens for Improving Affordable Housing believe that it is time to take Affordable Housing decisions out of the State Judges roll and put it back in the hands of the New Jersey State Legislature; and

WHEREAS, since the passage of the Affordable Housing Act in 1975, many things have changed, and many decisions have been quietly made without the input of New Jersey Municipalities and its citizens; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Governing Body of the Borough of Emerson supports the CIAH request to send letters in support of the State Elected Officials to set up and take over the Affordable Housing Act from the State Judges and work properly with the Municipalities and citizen groups to make this law work properly for ALL citizens of New Jersey.
